One world – many faces!

Assistance and information for migrants

Are you new in Rheine? You want to learn German?
You would like to do sports, however, you don't know how?
You have questions because your child will attend nursery school (kindergarten) or school?

Welcome to the City of Rheine.

The special department for Migration and Information is happy to consult you:

- In family matters, for example, with pedagogical issues
- With school and nursery school (kindergarten) registrations
- Language courses in your suburb "Sprachoffensive (language offensive)
- Integration into play groups
- With social benefits issues
- During social crises
- With letters and applications to the authorities
- When job seeking and job applications

Further offers:

- Public and network work
- International cooking groups for women
- Integration into sports clubs
- Suburb parties
- Bicycle safety training

These offers take place in different suburbs and urban districts.
When doing so, we also cooperate with other institutions.

Counselling can also be done in Turkish, Arabic, Polish, Russian, English and French.

Do you need supplementary assistance?

There are voluntary and committed locals in the City of Rheine who will assist you, free of charge, in case of need with your integration process.

There are different areas of assistance:

- Sponsors (mentors) for families and individuals
- Language assistants in addition to the language courses
- School sponsors (mentors) (assistance in the afternoon)
- Selective (ad hoc) assistance with short-term issues
- Guidance, escort to the doctor and interpreting.
